

Dear Business Partners,

Within next week (CW18) the business unit Mercedes-Benz Cars will proceed with its restart of production in their factories.

You have confirmed your operation ability already and we are firmly convinced this is still valid.

Should any unexpected problems occur, please do not hesitate to inform us and your contact person of the Cars plants immediately.

Updates on business hours of the plants we are trying to keep up-to-date, please visit our Website on the Supplier Portal recurrently:

For any inconveniences during the first days of restart we apologize in advance and ask for your understanding.

Thank you and kind regards,

Transportation Planning Mercedes-Benz Cars
